

Stylesheet International Journal of Conflict Engagement and Resolution (IJCER)

Submission of manuscripts

Please note that your contribution should contain between 4.500 and 7.000 words including the bibliography.

Spelling

Spelling follows the Oxford English Dictionary or the Concise Oxford Dictionary. If there is a choice we prefer the endings -ize and -ization as opposed to -ise or -isation.

Headings and Subheadings

Authors may use up to four levels of headings. All nouns, verbs and adjectives should begin with capital letters.

Referencing

Please use the styleguide of the journal. Please use in-text citation between parentheses: name of the author, year of publication and, if applicable, page number. E.g.:

- (Elkington, 1999: 15)
- (Allen and Qian, 2005; Bennet et al., 1999)
- (Rousseau, 1998a; 1998b).

A complete alphabetical list of references should be added at the end of the article. Referencing style in the bibliography should be as follows:

Book titles by a single author:

- Deutsch, M. (1973). The resolution of conflicts: Constructive and destructive processes. New Haven: Yale University Press.
- Kelman, H. (1996). The interactive problem-solving approach. In C. Crocker & F. Hampson (Eds.), Mediation in international relations (pp. 191-237). London: Macmillan.

Book titles by two or more authors:

- Alfini, J., Press, S.B., Sternlight, J. & Stulberg, J. (2006). Mediation theory and practice. Los Angeles, CA: LexisNexis.

Articles in a journal:

- Avruch, K. & Black, P. (1987). A 'generic' theory of conflict resolution: A critique. Negotiation Journal, 3(1), 87-96.
